FIRST TIME VOTERS WHO REGISTER BY MAIL

Please note that your state may have additional voter ID requirements, in addition to what's described below.

If you are voting for the first time in your state and registered by mail, federal law may require you to show proof of identification the first time you vote in a federal election. This proof of identification includes showing the following (or if voting a mail ballot, including a COPY of the following):

- A current and valid photo identification; OR
- A current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or government document that shows your name and address.

Federal law does not require you to show proof of identification at the polling location or when voting a mail ballot if (1) you provided a copy of one of the above with your National Mail Voter Registration Form; or (2) your voter registration form has been validated by an election official; or (3) you are entitled by federal law to vote by absentee ballot.
